Alcidion signs new contract extension with ACT Health for IT support services

Melbourne, Australia - Alcidion Group Limited (ASX: ALC) is pleased to announce it has renewed its ongoing support services contract with ACT Health for two further years. The contract extension is valued at $1.3 million and effective from 1 January 2021.

The contract extension will see Alcidion continue to provide ongoing technical support services to ACT Health for their integrated patient management system. This contract does not cover support of the Alcidion product suite including Miya Precision, Patientrack and Smartpage which are covered under separate arrangements.

This is an extension to a long standing services contract with ACT Health, the last extension to which was signed in 2018.

Kate Quirke, Managing Director of Alcidion said, "We are proud of our longstanding relationship with ACT Health and look forward to providing ongoing technical support services that will support ACT Health's ongoing commitment to providing highly integrated healthcare across all its facilities in Canberra."
